

BARCELONA 5 DAYS

DAY 1 Arrival to Barcelona and transfer to hotel

Arrival to Barcelona, a vibrant Mediterranean city, a cosmopolitan hub, and the capital of Catalonia. Barcelona is known for its unique blend of historical charm and modern trends, particularly its distinctive Art Nouveau architecture, including the iconic works of Antoni Gaudí. The city is a major cultural, economic, and financial center. Transfer to hotel, free time for relaxation.

DAY 2 Barcelona city tour

After breakfast, we will start our tour with Sagrada Família. Still incomplete today, more than ninety years after Gaudí's death, this building stands as one of the single most important works of architecture in Europe—a stunning example of Gaudí's genius, and the enduring power of his work and vision in Barcelona.

We will continue by looking at the history of Barcelona to see two of Gaudí's masterpieces: the Casa Milà (also known as La Pedrera), where we'll explore its fantastical exterior, and the Casa Batlló, on the Block of Discord.

After a short break for coffee (own expenses), we will head to the Gothic Quarter.

Your adventure through the enchanting cobblestoned streets will take you into El Call, the Jewish neighborhood established in the Middle Ages. Here you'll learn about the vacillating periods of relative religious freedom and periods of intolerance that have marked Catalan and Spanish history.

We will wander through the El Born area, characterized by narrow medieval streets that nowadays are home to many boutiques and cafes. Continuing past La Boqueria, Barcelona's main market, we will emerge onto the city's most famous street, known as Las Ramblas, the perfect setting to discuss the modern development of the city in the 18th and 19th centuries. Afternoon free time. We suggest you a visit to Park Guell or a catamaran cruise.

DAY 3 Free day or OPTIONAL Half day Montserrat monastery Tour

After breakfast, free day to explore Barcelona on your own or OPTIONAL Half day Montserrat monastery Tour. We will embark on a once-in-a-lifetime day trip to Montserrat from Barcelona and explore Catalonia's most famous mountain range. Take in the panoramic views of the mountain scenery as you ride the cogwheel train and discover the history of its medieval monastery with your passionate guides.

We will learn about the rich history of the Santa Maria de Montserrat Abbey, an 11th-century functioning monastery built on the mountain. Marvel at the ornate interior of the monastery with the included tickets. Then, enjoy free time to explore on your own.

We will ride the funicular train up the side of the mountain for even better views. Return to Barcelona

DAY 4 Free day or OPTIONAL Girona, Figueres, Dalí Museum, and Cadaqués tour

After breakfast, free day to explore Barcelona on your own or OPTIONAL Girona, Figueres, Dalí Museum, and Cadaqués tour

We will explore the cities of Girona, Figueres and Cadaqués on this day trip from Barcelona. Admire the Jewish Quarter in Girona and see the Castle of San Fernando in Figueres. Head to the coast for a visit to the fishing village of Cadaqués.

Meet your guide in Barcelona and hop aboard a spacious and air-conditioned bus. Settle in for the scenic ride to the city of Girona. Arrive in Girona and visit one of the most impressive historic centers in Catalonia. Soak up the vibe in the colorful Jewish Quarter.

Continue to Figueres, an important communications hub that connects Spain with France. There, we will have some free time to try delicious Catalan cuisine or enjoy an optional visit on your own to the famous Dalí Theater-Museum, built on the grounds of the city's former theater, which has the largest collection of Salvador Dalí's works.

Get recommendations from your guide on where to shop, eat, and drink. Finally, reach Cadaqués, a dreamy fishing village in the easternmost point of the Iberian Peninsula.

Uncover the charm of its narrow streets, the impressive church of Santa María, the artistic treasures of medieval times, and the quaint fishermen's houses that are in its historic center. Once the visit to Cadaqués is over, we will return to Barcelona by bus.
