It's known for its rich history, stunning architecture, and thermal baths, and is often referred to as the "Pearl of the Danube". The city is divided into two main parts: Buda, on the west bank, with its hilly and historic Castle District, and Pest, on the east bank, a bustling center with a wide range of activities. Transfer to hotel and free time for leisure and relax.

Along the way, pass the largest thermal spa in Europe and the Budapest Zoo, then stop at Heroes' Square, where you'll find statues of famed Hungarian kings. The tour continues from here down Andrassy Avenue to downtown Pest, passing the Opera House and St. Stephen's Basilica. Afternoon free to leisure.
