

LONDON 5 DAYS

DAY 1 Arrival to London and transfer to hotel

Arrival to London. London is a vibrant, cosmopolitan city, serving as the capital of both England and the United Kingdom. It is renowned for its rich history, diverse culture, and status as a global hub for commerce, art, and politics. The city is a blend of historic landmarks, modern architecture, and a lively atmosphere. Transfer to hotel and free time for leisure and relax.

DAY 2 London city tour and Thames river cruise

After breakfast, we will enjoy a Panoramic half day Tour of London. We will become acquainted with London's most well-loved landmarks during this exciting panoramic guided tour. We will sweep past a host of top attractions, both old and new, so have your camera ready, for this as we drive past Westminster to enjoy the famous Big Ben!

Next stop is St Paul's Cathedral - its huge dome has dominated the London skyline for 300 years! We'll have the chance to see the majestic cathedral and hear about this historic church - it's an architectural gem full of colourful mosaics, detailed paintings and shadowy crypts. Next, we could not miss the King's official London residence, Buckingham Palace which it sits grandly in the centre of the city. See this iconic house during our photo stop and count the number of foot guards on duty - if there are four outside the palace, His Majesty King Charles III is home! Experience the traditional Changing of the Guard ceremony - it's a colourful spectacle that draws thousands of visitors each year. We will visit Horse guards Parade when the ceremony is not available. We will finish our tour with River Thames Boat Ride. We will sail away from the crowds during a scenic River Thames cruise. Afternoon free for leisure

DAY 3 Free day or OPTIONAL London Eye Ticket and Tower of London with Tower Bridge

After breakfast, free day to explore London on your own or OPTIONAL entrance tickets to London's most amazing landmarks

London Eye Ticket

Enjoy incredible 360-degree views of London on the majestic lastminute.com London Eye. An iconic part of the London skyline and on a select list of 'must-dos' when visiting the city, the London Eye is made up of 32 high-tech glass capsules. At its peak the Eye elevates you to the dizzy heights of 135 metres above ground level! Providing spectacular views across the city of London, spot Buckingham Palace, the Houses of Parliament, Big Ben, Tower Bridge and various other iconic London landmarks, as the glittering Thames spreads out before you. London looks gorgeous both in the day and the night and boarding at sunset is even better. The journey around the Eye takes about 30 minutes, so there is plenty of time to take pictures and simply sit back and enjoy the view.

Tower of London

The Tower of London has been a central part of London life since the 11th century. It's had many uses throughout its history including being the home of 'royal beasts', the Royal Mint and a prison. It earned a chilling reputation for being a formidable Castle that Londoners would have trembled at the sight of. During your visit, you'll uncover plenty of British history. Meet the Yeoman Warders who once kept prisoners inside the Tower safe. Discover the majestic Crown Jewels and see which diamond-encrusted masterpieces were worn by which Queen or King. Explore the interactive Royal Beasts Exhibition which gives visitors a fascinating insight into what was once the home of lions, baboons and even a polar bear inside the Tower.

Tower Bridge

A fascinating history spanning over 135 years, Tower Bridge is one of London's most iconic landmarks. Discover interesting stories and more as you wander through the Walkways and engage with the interactive displays and exhibitions. With the Glass Floors, you'll enjoy panoramic views of London's famous locations and landmarks including Sir Christopher Wren's masterpiece St Paul's Cathedral, Canary Wharf, the historic Greenwich, Tower of London, the City, The Shard and much more.

Once you've taken in the sights, travel back in time to the Victorian age as you venture into the atmospheric Engine Rooms to uncover the machinery and people that worked here.

DAY 4 Free day or OPTIONAL Windsor Castle, Bath and Stonehenge Tour

After breakfast, free day to explore London on your own or OPTIONAL Windsor Castle, Bath and Stonehenge Tour

Windsor Castle

Start your British adventure in Windsor Castle. As the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world, Windsor Castle has been home to the British monarchy for over 900 years. Venture into the opulent State Apartments to discover a statue of Queen Victoria, the Waterloo Chamber, the King's Rooms, Queen's Rooms and world-famous masterpieces by the likes of Leonardo da Vinci and Rembrandt. You'll also get to explore St George's Chapel – the setting for many royal weddings including that of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's and the final resting place of Queen Elizabeth II. If you're visiting on a Thursday or Saturday, listen out for the triumphant tunes of troops in red uniforms and bearskin caps at the Changing of the Guard ceremony. Please be aware that Windsor Castle is closed every Tuesday and Wednesday. If you are travelling on one of these days, please select an option that does not include Windsor Castle entry. A guided walking tour of Windsor will operate instead every Tuesday and Wednesday.

Stonehenge

The great and ancient stone circle of Stonehenge is one of the wonders of the world. Visit the Neolithic stones that have stood on the Salisbury Plains for around 5,000 years and discover the fascinating theories surrounding this prehistoric monument. Attempt to piece together how, who and why they came to rest there – it promises to be an unforgettable experience. Make sure to visit the award-winning visitor centre where you can see 250 archaeological objects discovered in the landscape, contemporary art, photographs, the large shop and café. Just outside the visitor centre, you'll also find a recreation of the Neolithic houses found during excavations in 2006 and 2007.

Bath

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Bath is a stunning Georgian city with exceptional architecture. It's home to the world-famous Roman Baths, one of the best historic attractions in the country. Although you can no longer take a dip in these waters, you can soak in the glorious views of the hot springs and the gorgeous area that surrounds them. Why not sip Bath's waters in the Pump Room and give your verdict on the taste? If there's time to spare, wander the cobbled streets of the idyllic city, making sure to visit Bath Abbey, the Royal Crescent and the spectacular Pulteney Bridge. You may also want to pop into the Jane Austen centre for a spot of regency afternoon tea.
